Live a unique experience in this exclusive luxury villa perched on the cliffs of Tamariu, with endless views over the Mediterranean. This is not just an accommodation, but a private retreat designed to disconnect, relax, and enjoy the surroundings at their fullest.

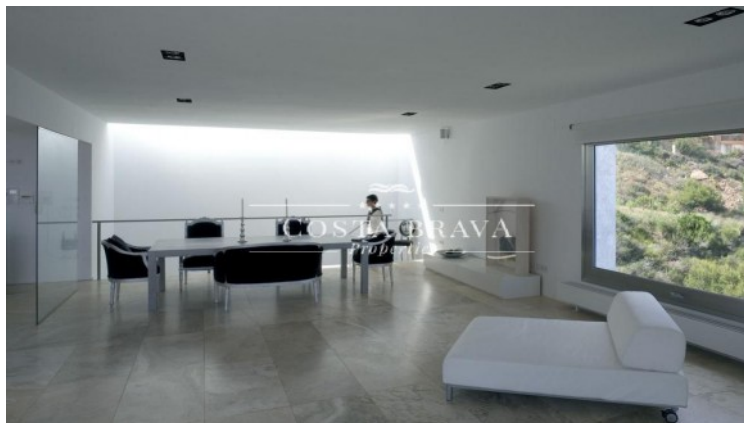

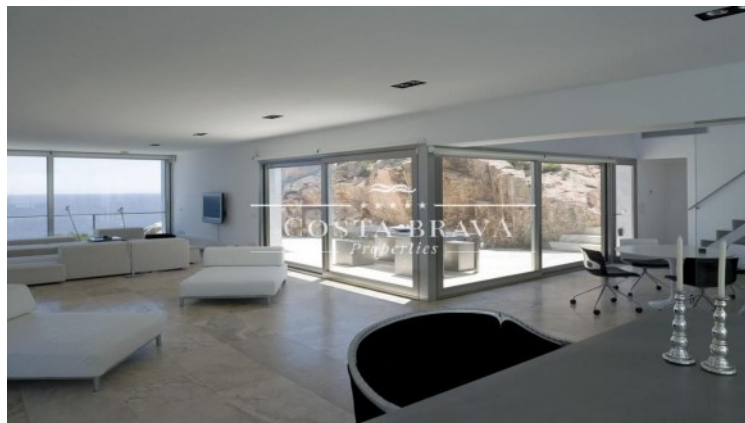

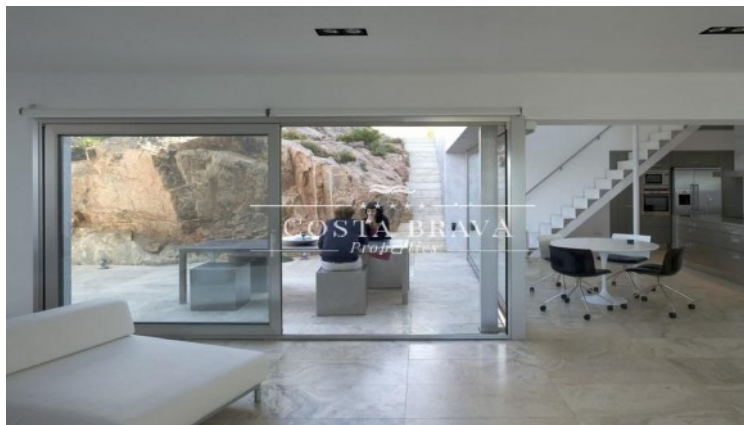

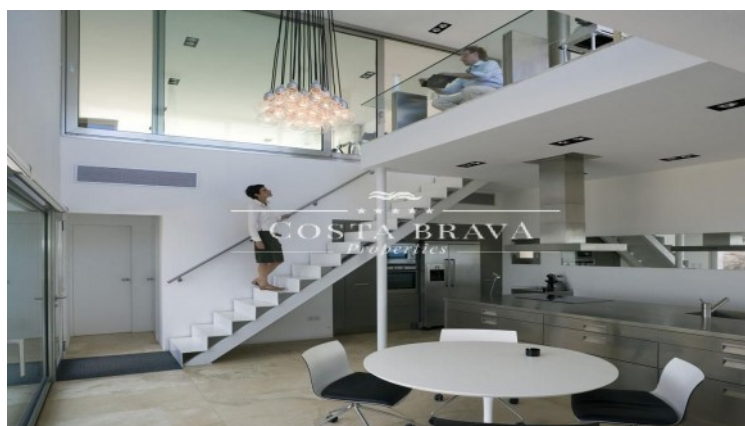

This spectacular minimalist villa is masterfully integrated into the Costa Brava landscape, combining contemporary architecture, natural materials, and the original cliff rock to create a sophisticated and serene atmosphere. From every room, large floor-to-ceiling windows frame the sea as the absolute protagonist, flooding the home with light and calm.

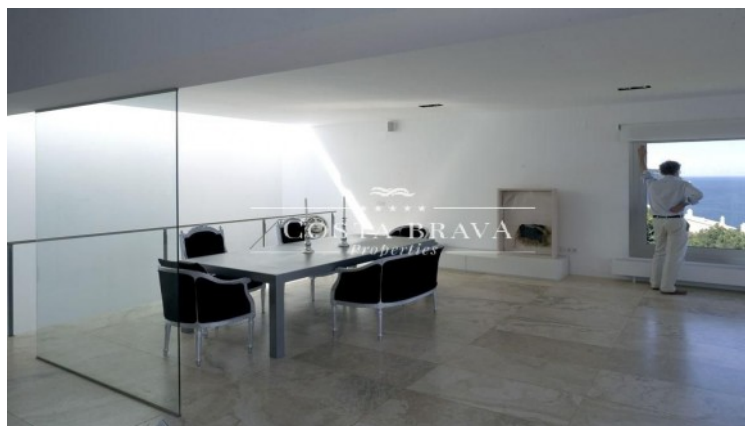

The property offers over 500 m² spread across four levels, with spacious areas thoughtfully designed for both rest and social living. The layout ensures privacy while still providing inviting communal spaces, perfect for sharing special moments in an exclusive setting.

It features five bedrooms and four bathrooms, making it an ideal option for groups of adults or families with older children seeking a peaceful, elegant, and distinctive stay. The uniqueness of its design and the terrain's configuration make this villa especially recommended for those who appreciate architecture and direct contact with nature.

An exceptional rental for those wishing to enjoy luxury, privacy, and incomparable views in one of the most sought-after corners of the Costa Brava.
